

Wishing Well

They say have faith and be fervent when you pray
But most times I can't think of a single thing to say
Just believe and your life will surely change
But why's it take so long for God to ease the pain

It seems to come so very easy for the rest
I must be too broken up inside for God to bless
They say be still and you'll hear His voice within
But the only voice I hear is asking me again

How do you know how can you tell
If you've only been fooling your self
Maybe these prayers are no more help
Than throwing pennies in a wishing well

I really don't know how I'm supposed to feel
Is there some kind of sign to show me this is real
One shining moment when this suddenly makes sense
And this brand new life they talk about will be my experience

So I keep waiting waiting for heaven's door to open
But when you come up empty handed you know it's hard to keep on hopin'
I'd hate to think I've waisted so much time
Chasing the rainbows end I'm never gonna find so

How do you know how can you tell
If you've only been fooling your self
Maybe these prayers are no more help
Than throwing pennies in a wishing well

They say keep standing on the word so in each trial I'll prevail
BUt where do I stand when this all seems like a fairy tale lyrics copyright 2016 Scott Seabock

